ALLEGED LOTTERY AGENT ARRESTED

Morris Schnitzer, of This City, were Vice President Sherman, Senator Found in Baltimore.

POLICE RAID HIS ROOMS HERE

ber of Lottery Tickets and Names Italians in the distribution of offices. Claim to Have Seized a Large Numof Persons Known in Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New received no recognition from this or any York Business Circles.

The arrest of Morris Schnitzer, or Schlitzer, by the Baltimore police yesterday, charged with representing a gigantic lottery, operating in this and foreign countries, involves a number of business men of Washington, Baltimore, and other through Schnitzer, whom the police be-Heve is general agent of the concern in Schnitzer is a resident of Washington, west. Central Office Detective O'Brien, acting under orders from Inspector Boardman, raided Schnitzer's rooms last night. The detective claims to have discovered a large number of lottery tickets issued by a Hungarian company. In Schnitzer's rooms were found and seized several hundred alleged lottery tickets, and a long list of names of persons well phia, and New York.

Saloon Keeper Complained, The arrest of Schnitzer, who is an Austrian, was brought about by information filed by Michael Dewart, proprietor of a Baltimore saloen. Dewart had complained to the police that Schnitzer had Schnitzer, with the result that he was less to offer aid. arrested and charged with having in his company, which he is alleged to have attempted to sell. hearing was postponed. The Washingupon his rooms followed, with the dis- last evening. covery of the lottery tickets and the list

The names, opposite which appears a

Will Be Investigated.

Inspector Boardman said last night the discovery of the lottery tickets and the Schnitzer has been a resident of Wash-ington for years. He was employed in a from his companion. Forgetful of danprinting shop at 1233 Seventh street north- ger, he jumped back into the water and west. He is said to have at one time represented the East River View Land playmate.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau,

Washington, Monday, June 21, 1993—8 p. m.

Warm weather continues general in the Atlantic States, the Mississippi Valley, and the Southwest; in the extreme Northwest the weather has become cooler. There were local mins within the last twentyfour hours in the Southern States, the Ohlo, Upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, and parts of the Lake region.

Temperatures in Other Cities. Temperatures in other cities, together with the amount of minfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8

p. m. yesterday, are as follows

				Rain
	Max.	Min.	8 p. m.	fal
Asheville, N. C	76	62	70	0.0
Atlanta, Ga	76	68	70	0.
Atlantic City, N. J	80	64	68
Bismarck N. Dak	76	58	74
Boston, Mass	88	72	82
Buffalo, N. Y	72	62	68
Chicago, Ill	78	72	78	0.
Cincinnati, Ohio	80	70	70	0.3
Cheyenne, Wyo	76	48	74	T
Davenport, Iowa	81	68	78	T
Denver, Colo	80	58	74	-
Des Moines, Iowa	86	66	82
Galveston, Tex	86	80	82	T
Helena, Mont	70	46	68	Î
Indianapolis, Ind	74	68	68	0.
Jacksonville, Fla	S6	76	78	0.
Kansas City, Mo	86	68	- 81
Little Rock, Ark	82	68	80
Los Angeles, Cal	74	54	66	***
Marquette, Mich	90	62	76	. **
Memphis, Tenn		70	80	200
New Orleans, La	86	74	74	0.7
New York, N. Y	90	66	84	0.7
North Platte, Nebr	84	58	78	***
Omaha, Nebr	84	66	82	***
Pittsburg, Pa		66	78	× 20
	88	68		***
Portland, Oreg		52	76	T
Salt Lake City, Utah			68	799
St. Louis, Mo	78	52	78	***
Ca Doul Minn	82	68	80	444
St. Paul, Minn San Francisco, Cal	84	70	82
Caringfold III	66	50	60	***
Springfield, III	84	68	78
Tacoma, Wash			64	3.55
Vicksburg, Miss	82	70	78	0.3

Tide Table.

To-day—High tide, 11:19 a. m. and 11:52 p. m. Low tide, 5:31 a. m. and 6 p. m. To-morrow—High tide, 12:97 a. m. Low tide, 6:22 Condition of the Water,

Special to The Washington Herald. Harpers Ferry, W. Va., June 21,—Both river house at 1513 L street northwest between Mrs. Mary Templeton Fields and the Misses Overton has been settled by a peace pact. Mrs. Fields told the corporation coursel vesterday in the District of the Corporation coursel vesterday in the Corporation of the Corporation courselves and the Corporation peace pact. Mrs. Fields told the cor-poration counsel yesterday in the Police Court there had been too much racket about the affair, and that she thought she

I. & D. PRINTING IS EFFECTIVE.

The Big Print Shop, with its magnificent facilities, is best able to do your printing as you would have it done. We are prompt in Judd & Detweiler, Inc., THE BIG PRINT SHOP, 420-22 11TH ST.

TAFT DEFIES HEAT.

Played Golf at Chevy Chase with Vice President Sherman. President Taft played golf at Chevy was the warmest that has visited Washngton this summer. Jonathan Bourne, and Gen. Clarence R. Edwards.

Frank L. Frezone, editor of the Italian Evening Bulletin, of New York, the prinpire State, was a caller on the President. Mr. Frezone said after his interview with Mr. Taft that he was anxious to administration recognize the They are a big factor in New York poliother administration. It seems remarkable that such a state of affairs should "We are a half million strong in New York, and it is time something was done

TWO BOYS DROWNED IN RIVER

It is alleged they played the lottery Charlie Falvey and Willie Hook Lose Their Lives.

and has rooms at 1203 Sixth street south- One Dies While Making Effort to Rescue the Other-Playmates and Chums at School.

When little Charlie Falvey, nine years the brothers on the acceptance of the maold, heard the call for assistance from his chine, will be increased by a bonus of ples and a big heart. In Paris he has chum and schoolmate, Willie Hook, ten $7,500. years old, he jumped into the Eastern known in this city, Baltimore, Philadel- Branch at the foot of Fifteenth street, be made toward Alexandria and back, king of finance-a man of about the same

He reached the side of his chum, who struggle to save a life two young lives terday.

were lost. The drowning happened yesterday, aftattempted to sell lottery tickets in the were soon notified by the companions of ernoon about 2:30 o'clock, and the parents vicinity of his place of business. The the boys, who had been the only witnesses to the tragedy, and were power-

The Falvey boy was the son of Charles possession lottery tickets of a Hungarian F. Falvey, of the Bureau of Engraving When taken into court he declined to the son of John Hook, carpenter, living make a statement, and the preliminary at 405 Kentucky avenue southeast. The bodies were recovered by the police and ton detectives were notified, and the raid returned to the homes from the morgue

The victims of the drowning sat side 125 miles. by side in the second grade of the Buch-anan School. Yesterday afternoon after that an American concern has offered to set of numbers, presumably the numbers of lottery tickets, were turned in at detective headquarters. They form a bulky "Now, Charlie, be careful," said his When asked in regard to it, Orville "Now, Charlie, be careful," said his When asked in regard to it, a view of learning more of the operations is deep there. Evidently Charlie Falforward movement. He replied he would vey had finished his plunge, and was use the starting device in the tests. lost his life in trying to save that of his Mr. Wright answered: The Falvey boy's parents say young Falvey was a good swimmer. The Hook

ald not swim, and was being taught by his chum

Funeral arrangements have been made. STARKWEATHER RETRACTS.

Francis E. Baker's Letter Now Given in Full.

I therefore, now solemnly renounce and abjure my aforesaid rash charge "to incriminate myself," &c, and submit the letter itself verbatim for those who are competent to interpret it:

"Washington, D. C., May 12, 1909.
"Francis E. Baker, No. 7 East Forty-second street, New York City:
"Dear Sir: I agree to furnish you a complete, detailed statement, under oath, of all assets and liabilities, a full list of officers, directors, trustees, executive committees, stockholders, and holders of improvement certificates of the Forest Leke Cemetery within twenty-four hours Lake Cemetery within twenty-four hours

Special to The Washington Herald.

Harpers Ferry, W, Va., June 21.—Both rivers muddy.

House Trouble Ended.

The contest for the possession of the house at 1513 L street northwest between finding the street of the possession of the house at 1513 L street northwest between finding the street northwest finding the street northwest finding the street northwest finding the street northwest finding the street northwest

GEORGE B. STARKWEATHER.

Washington, June 27.

Board Fines Policeman. The police board has fined Patrolman C. C. Coombs, of the Fifth precinct, $50 or intoxication and conduct unbecoming an officer. The charge was made by Miss Ellen D. Barrier, principal of the Langston Public School.

Atlanta Boy to Be Sent Home. George H. Taylor, a boy from Atlanta, Sa., was before Judge Kimball yesterday charged with vagrancy. He was turned over to Agent Massie, of the Prison Re-Hef Society, and will be sent home.

MAY BREAK RECORD LAST NIGHT AT

hase yesterday, although the weather Wright Brothers Announce Latest Expectations.

WOULD GO 43 MILES AN HOUR

cipal Italian Republican paper of the Em- Believed Speed Test Will Be Given on Course Between Alexandria and new plays that have been accepted by Fort Myer-Telephone Wire Will the Shuberts, and allow them a "try-out" Be Strung to Record Time Made. Putting the Machine Together.

> for the test flights of their aeroplane at r three miles an hour.

Hotel by a representative of The Wash- fered. ngton Herald what velocity he expected to make in the speed test of ten miles. he replied:

used this time.

The Contract Price, If the flyer travels at the rate of fortyhree miles an hour the contract price of $25,000, which the government will pay

While it is believed the speed test will lary, the daughter of New York's newest where they had been bathing, and the course has not been definitely de-type as the late Le Baron, sr. Hilswam to the rescue. signal officer of the army, conferred with master," on account of his powerful magrabbed him about the neck, and in the the Wright brothers at Fort Myer yes-

"He asked us to let him know the ourse as soon as we had decided upon be the "son of his father," in that he t," said Orville Wright, "in order that will lend his name to any of the disthe proper preparations may be made. A telephone wire will then be strung, so that the time of arrival at the end of the five miles may be kept track of, as on his yacht, after first being satisfied the start back for the parade ground." No stop will be made at the outward and Printing, residing at 251 Fourteenth end of the course, but by the telephone street southeast, and the Hook boy was wire arrangement the time required to turn the flyer will not be counted against he record. Either Lieut. Foulois or Lieut. Lahm, of the Signal Corps, will be carried as the extra passenger required by the contract, Enough fuel will also be aboard for a continuous flight of

"All right," was the reply, "I can the rumor. He was asked if he would Wright said he preferred not to discuss swim."
He found Willie Hook sitting on the Wright in France in demonstrating that discovery of the lottery tickets and the lawn, whittling a stick.

It is of names will be further investigated and some of the persons interviewed, with lawn, whittling a stick.

At the foot of Fifteenth street is what is known as the coal chute, and the water lawn, whittling a stick.

At the foot of Fifteenth street is what is known as the coal chute, and the water lawn, whittling a stick. use the starting device in the tests. In response to a question as to whether heavier-than-air machines would ever come a sport of the wealthy classes,

A Costly Amusement. "It has already. The trouble at present time is that it is so expensive, jests are handled, and some through the principal streets. In an ness. He seems to be just the man in other car were Col. McCleary, Dr. Camp-

Hall by leading colored citizens, Dr. and fron, figure conspicu

Looke Cemetery within twenty-four hours from 12 o'clock noon to-day.

"I hereby state to you that at this date the total number of shares issued by said cemetery amounts to 10,000; of said total amount I can deliver—shares.

"That said cemetery company has issued improvement certificates in amount I can deliver—par value of said improvement certificates.

"I further agree that I will deliver the resignations of all officers, directors, trustees, executive committeemen, and sell to you above shares, and par $— improvement certificates of said Forest Lake Cemetery Company within—days from the date hereof for the sum of $_{-} cash all officers and addressed an interval reception. The love of the programme of the programme of the programme.

"I further agree that I will deliver the resignations of all officers, directors, trustees, executive committeemen, and sell to you above shares, and par $_{-} improvement certificates of said Forest Lake Cemetery Company within—days from 12 o'clock noon to-day.

"I hereby state to you that at this date the speaker was introduced by Dr. W. W. Staley. Colored orators were sandwiched between the white on the programme.

Norfolk, Va., June 21.—Booker T. Washington held an informal reception of a man of strength and virility, who, when beaten, was not asknamed to acknowledge it. Mr. Frederick Burton was good as the unfortunate McElroy, the man who sacrificed his life to the money market and its demands.

William Rossell, who is pleasantly remembered for his clever work in "Mile. Mischief." was an amusing chap of the lovable juvenile type, and he made love very acceptably to Miss Eisle Esmond. Who as Rebecca Love played opposite him. The pair furnished considerable fundate hereof for the sum of $_{-} cash all the speaker was introduced by Dr. Washington held an informal reception of the programme.

ment certificates of said Forest Lake Cemetery Company within — days from date hereof for the sum of $\( -\) cash, all of said resignations, together with said shares of stock and said improvement certificates, to be placed in the Bank of Washington within ten days from date.
"It being understood that the said shares and said improvement certificates shall be subject to the following mortgages: John J. Cameron, mortgages: John J. Cameron, mortgage and interest, $2,000; John J. Cameron, mortgage and interest, $2,000; Sam E. Cox, interest and cost, $5,100.
"It is also understood and agreed that I will return to said Forest Lake Cemetery Co. by good and merchantable title all the real estate ever owned by said cemetery company subject to above mortgages.

"Yours table."

was tendered a banquet by the colored board of trade at the White City Pavilion.
Dr. Washington held an informal reception at the Colored Y. M. C. A., in Queen street, immediately after his arrival in the city.

Bids for Erection of Substation.

Proposals for the erection of a substation and stable for the police department, to be erected at the southwest corner of Nicholas avenue and Chicago street, Anacostia, were opened in the office of the Engineer Commissioner yesterday, four contractors filing proposals.

James M. Dunn was the lowest bidder, at $16,375. The other bidders were Allen T. street, Anacostia, were opened in the Stevens, Grant Clarke, and John Emer-James M. Dunn was the lowest bidder, at $16,365. The other bidders were Allen T. Hourison, $17,580; John H. Gibbons, $18,269, and Burgess & Parsons, $16,779.

Bicycle Outfit Stolen.

Thieves entered a shed in the rear of pedals, and a rear wheel.

PURE OLIVE OIL

For table use or for use in the sick room. Ours is made in California. High-grade and per-fectly pure. Two sizes, $1.00 and 50 cents.

To-Kalon Wine Co., 614 14th St. N. W. 'Phone Main 998.

THE THEATERS

THE BELASCO.

"The Son of His Father." A flattering attendance marked the opening of the summer season at the Belasco Theater last night, when the Messrs. Shubert produced a new play entitled "The Son of His Father." object of the company now installed at the Belasco Theater, as has been previously stated, is to give production to under the best possible advantage. The company engaged has not the com plexion of a regular stock organization, because the selection of actors and actresses for the portrayal of types would Orville Wright, who, with his brother, necessarily be restricted in that case, but, Wilbur Wright, is in the city preparing on the other hand, various people under the management of the firm will be brought Fort Myer the latter part of this week, to Washington, as occasion demands, for expects to break the best record made by the creation of the characters for which the Wright fiver up to this time by two they are especially fitted. Thus the maximum of encouragement will be given to When asked last night at the Raleigh the proper presentation of each play of-"The Son of His Father" was well re ceived last night. It is a modern play, in which stocks and bonds and sentiment "I hope to make forty-two, and perhaps and science are commingled. The play forty-three, miles an hour. In the flights takes its name from the fact that the last September the engine was not worked central figure, John Le Baron, is the son of a great financier of Wall street, who has died, leaving behind him a reputation at full capacity. Its full power will be for merciless dealing and the wreckage of other men's fortunes.

Not being under the necessity of working for a living, he has the reputation for being a dilettante and an idler, but in reality he is a clean-cut, wholesom met and fallen in love with Eleanor Hilnipulation of the "street," brough a tremendous deal, in which Le Baron is invited to become a partner. Le Baron, however, turns out not to reputable schemes of "the ringmaster, whom he repudiates, and all his works, sell as the time of passing the line on that Hillary had abandoned his nefarious projects. Hillary, too, is starting for Europe, but before he goes he leaves directions to his brokers, which, if car-ried out, will "break" the particular market in which Le Baron is involved. Young Le Baron, entertaining a jolly party on board his yacht, is all unconous of "the ringmaster's" treachery intil two of his guests, who amuse themelves by translating wireless messages, icked up in midocean, run across one of cial tugs can bring him. The crisis is reached and a tremendous financial bat-

"the son of his father"-a winner. A powerful story, crisply and directly told. The author is obviously thoroughly familiar with the machinations and the dealings of the financial world. Big subjects are handled, and sometimes the action plans to the Russian government by the girl's father, which is thwarted by the cleverness of the hero. The whole makes an extremely interest-The cost of the fiver is not the only tiated, but at all times the plot is kept within the bounds of plausibility. The which the audience is kept in suspense within the bounds of plausibility. The which the audience is kept in suspense Within the bounds of platform, the background when the howl of newspaper men is heard in the jungles. He has the property of disappearing, like a Sandy Hook gun carriage.

The brothers spent yesterday hard at work putting their aeroplane together in the balloon shed at Fort Myer. Orville Wright said he did not believe he would be ready for a flight before Friday, or Thursday at the earliest.

A new board of officers will judge the Wilbur Wright keeps himself in the action is mostly rapid fire, the only as to just how the heroine suspects as to

A new board of officers will judge the leading feminine role, which is more or yet with that spice of roguishness which performance of the machine at the comperformance of the machine at the coming tests. It will consist of Maj. George O. Squier, Maj. C. McK. Saltzman, C. S.
Wallace, Capt. De F. Chandler, Lieuts.
Frank P. Lahm, Benjamin D. Foulois, and C. H. Humphries, U. S. A., and not entirely new, presents aspects of the completely exemplifying the strength of the story about it. The climax of the her true womanly character and love.

Mr. Orme Caldera also has a character and work evidently to his liking, for he and C. H. Humphries, U. S. A., and not entirely new, presents aspects of the machine at the coming the strength of the story about it. The climax of the her true womanly character and love.

Mr. Orme Caldera also has a character and work evidently to his liking, for he enters into the thing with so much for hours in the Southern States, the Othic Upper Dississippi and Miscouti valleys, and parts of the Three will be considerable conditions, with local ratios, in the Eastern and Southern States, the Othic Yolfer, and the Lake region during the next forst-weight hours. The temperature in these districts will containe high, except that it will not be outled ready of the Lake region during the next forst-weight hours. The temperature in these districts will not be considerable to the Middle lakes region during the next forst-weight hours. The temperature in these districts will not be considerable to the Middle lakes and the South Markew O'Briten, domindled with the McNells, to-day demands in the name of the Middle lakes south of Virginia. The weather in these districts Wednesday. Pair weather in these districts Wednesday. Pair weather in these districts Wednesday. Pair weather for the Middle lakes south and southers for the Middle lakes along the New England coast will be local ratio in the moderate westerity on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate southers' on the Middle and South Altantic coasts light to moderate south and sou There is plenty of opportunity for good ing, and his best work is in the serious acting on the part of the very excellent moment at the close. company which the Messrs. Shuder that the sengaged for the production. A. H. Van ted with congenial parts in almost every instance. Mr. Thomas Chatterton ap-Buren, who assumed the leading part of instance. Le Baron, is an actor of much ability.

the role for which he is cast-a thought ful, straightforward, and honest "fighting" gentleman. The play abounds in excellent character

After luncheon served in Samaritan parts. Three financiers, men of blood and iron, figure conspicuously. Of these, Washington addressed an audience of Edward Emery, as Paul Craven, con-tributed a splendid study in naturalness and reserve force. George Howell, as Hillary, "the ringmaster," was also well within the limits of probability. There ceremonies, Rev. Joseph B. Dunn, rector was no tendency toward mock heroics of St. Paul's, made an address of welby Dr. W. W. Staley. Colored orators who, when beaten, was not ashamed to acknowledge it. Mr. Frederick Burton evening. A number of electric fans have was good as the unfortunate McElroy, the been installed that add greatly to the ington University, will be the speaker toman who sacrificed his life to the money comfort of the patrons.

with their doings on board the yacht when they read every one's wireless meschanges her mal de mere for intoxication, created plenty of laughter during her short occupation of the stage. Half dozen minor parts were excellently acted by Virginia Pearson, Charles D. Pitt, Paul Taylor, Harry McFayden, Ogden

Miss Laurette Taylor, whose last appearance in Washington was in "Yosem-ite," was cast for the role of Eleanor. to bring out adequately owing to a ten-Harry F. Seaman's residence, Sixth and an actress who can be depended upon to the animal and kept the dog from attacking the people in the corridor. That morning and carried off bicycle lamps, characters. That she should choose to incident lasted only a minute, but in "The Son of His Father" has been handsomely mounted, the yacht scene of the second act being particularly cool and inviting, and the two interiors being tasteful as well as natural. The absence of artificiality is a welcome note through out the whole piece, both the acting and the lines being natural and easy. Moreover, the play is clean, and is an admirable example of the fact that the modern play can be strong and entertaining without resort to unpleasant expositions of vice.

The Belasco company starts well on on the leg by a dog yesterday while ridits venture, and should the Shubert maning a bicycle.

agement thereby secure at least one other play as interesting and worth while as "The Son of His Father," the mission of the undertaking will be fulfilled. will be fulfilled. WILLIAM OSBORN.

THE NATIONAL.

The Aborn Opera Company in "Florodora,"

When Owen Hall and Leslie Stuart emposed "Florodora" they reached the very apex of excellence in musical comedy. They supplied it with a well-told story, many witty lines, a certain atmospheric charm, and a musical score whose captivating melodies held theatergoers in thrall for many months. The fame of "Florodora" is usually most closely associated with its sextet, and the "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden." song; though as a matter of matter that is but one of numerous attractions. The Aborn Opera Company's production of this play last night at the National was in every respect an agreeable suc-The players put into their work an abundance of life; the songs and the dances went off smoothly, and the comedy carried well over the footlights. Though not in the leading part, Miss Gertrude Willington, as Lady Hollywood, really scored the individual hit of the evening. She has the real musicalomedy instinct and dash, and in "When I Leave Town' and "Tact" demonstrated a marked aptitude for the effective ren dering of topical songs. Miss Willington likewise danced gracefully, and spoke the cynically humorous lines of her part wit an evident keen appreciation of their Blanche Morrison played Dolores and was well received, doing her best work in the song, "The Girl of the Philli coed was excellent and was enthusias-tically applauded for his singing of "The Shade of the Paim," as well as for his rendition of Harold May's song, "Dreams of You." Comedy, with a touch of spon-taneity, was furnished by Philip H. Ryley as Anthony Tweedlepunch, and Halden Wostyn made a prosperous-looking American millionaire and Willard Curtis a typical British army officer, who took life as it came and refused to worry A well-appearing and well-trained dou ble sextet, among whom Miss Almyra Sessions, of this city, was conspicuous, took care of the "Pretty Maiden" song in good style, and the one hit of the evening which may be said to have brought down the house was the "We Get Up at 8 A. M.," by Miss Grace Waldo and Nace Bonville. The production is handsomely staged and the costuming effective,

THE COLUMBIA.

"The Man on the Box." The sudden advent of summer weather eems to work no change in the popularity of The Columbia Players, for last night the theater was again crowded at Hillary's instructions to his broker. This the opening of the week's attraction, message sets Le Baron to the right which is "The Man On the Box," a play the opening of the week's attraction. about, and he hastens back to New York used successfully by Henry E. Dixey, atand there starts up a complete oppo-sition to the Hillary plans. Hillary, of any degree diminished by the handling course, also posts back from Europe as fast as the Kalser Wilhelm II and spe-

The play has for its essence comedy based on the escapade of a young army and Le Baron's inherited fighting quali- officer, who impersonates a coachman for ties manifest themselves to the discom- the purpose of playing a practical joke fiture of the money kings. Unlike his on his sister, but drives away with the father, though, he fights for the prin-ciple, and in winning, proves himself to numerous difficulties. Through this com-A powerful story, crisply and directly edy runs some intrigue involving the sale pears as Charlie Henderson, the reporter and chum of the hero; Alexander Frank in the heavy role of Col. George Annesley; Alexander Calvert as Count Karloff, the Russian diplomatic agent; Lawrence Eyre as Col. Frank Raleigh; Frederick Powell as Pierre, the chef; Ever-ett Butterfield as Judge Watts, of the at $22,000, and the debts at $11,750. police court; James W. Shaw as clerk; hero's sister; Clara Sidney as Mrs. Conway, and Ruth Chatterton as Cora. The play is staged and produced under the direction of Frederick A. Thompson

THE LYCEUM.

The Theise Stock Company.

Despite the warm weather, a large audience enjoyed the performance of the Theise Stock Company at the New Lyceum Theater yesterday afternoon and

The show this week is up to the standard in every particular, and the favorites are all cast in congenial roles. Ted Burns, the robust disciple of Momus, caused laughter from his entrance until his exit, Anna Deck made a decided hit with her The pair furnished considerable fun their doings on board the yearst though not playing a very important role, was very pleasing. when they read every one's wireless mes-sages with perfectly innocent intent, but with startling results. Mrs. Marion Bal-lou as a seasick charge who will be greatly improved if this clever young woman were given a better opportunity. Two Washington boys who have been lou, as a seasick chaperon, who ex- rapidly forging ahead in the company are Cooper and Zeigler, and this week they more than come up to expectations.

Mad Dog at Large.

"Mad dog! Mad dog! Mad dog!" was the startling cry that rang out in the basement of the Municipal Building yesterday afternoon as a large collie foaming at the mouth, tongue hanging out, dashed through the corridor headed The part as written contains more lights for the Thirteen-and-a-half street and shadows than Miss Taylor was able entrance. The alarm brought every dency to play all on one key. She should brighten up the part a little as she is the people. Capt. John J. Strain kicked give an artistic interpretation to her characters. That she should choose to tacking the people in the corridor. The tacking the people in the corridor. The tacking the people in the corridor. The characters. That she should choose to incident lasted only a minute, but in that brief period furnished enough extitute that reacts upon the play as a citement to last a month. The collie escaped through a window.

Asked to Arrest Girl.

The police have been asked to arrest Madeline Jane Brady, a white girl, fourteen years old, missing from 3559 Tenth street northwest, and thought to have been addnapped or run away with a man calling himself Russell.

Bicycle Rider Bitten. Charles Bontzi, eighteen years old, of 614 Eleventh street northeast, was bitten You Can Always Have It Charged

THE O COLOR Transminimum SIS-515-517 7TH ST.

. WAISTS

Two Crowd - attracting Sales at Half What They Are Worth.

A most attractive sale feature will be the distribution of a large consignment of beautiful New Waists-about 65 dozen all told-in the popular Dutch collar styles. There are about ten new and attractive patterns; made of fine and sheer materials; lace and embroidery designed; plenty of all sizes; not a waist in the lot worth under $1.95. For the New Waists, of black and white checked and dotted percales, in neat and attractive styles; all sizes; not one 49C of these waists worth less than $1. For the sale at....

_____THE ____ DISTRICT CONCRETE CO.

CAPITAL, $100,000.

DR. H. P. FORNEY, Pros. DR. P. D. FORNEY, Treas. DR. GEO. W. YOURTEE, Vice Pres. S. N. WIDDUP, Secretary and General Manager.

WORKS: STOTTS STATION, D. C.

Manufacturers of Concrete in every known form. We are now equipping a plant to manufacture concrete work of any description, from a concrete brick to a concrete building or bridge.

No work too large or too small for us to undertake.

We have an unlimited quantity of the finest qualities of sand, including fine, medium, and coarse, all absolutely pure and clean, which we will furnish to builders and others in cartload or trainload lots.

Correspondence solicited. Prompt shipments guar-

Address

THE DISTRICT CONCRETE CO. STOTTS STATION, D. C.

MAY CAUSE A CONTEST.

An unwitnessed revocation of the will ment of the estate. The will, dated March 12, 1891, was filed for probate yesterday, together with two codicils. On the margin is an attempted revocation, written by the testator, bearing date of July 17, 1906. Justice Barnard, of the District Supreme Court, who is named executor with the widow, Mrs. Maude H. Grisfiled a petition for letters of administra-tion, placing the value of the property the ground that the revocation is legal, Ethel Wright as Nancy Warburton, the the heirs, including the other executors, filed an answering petition, asking that letters of administration be issued to the > Mrs. Griswold is made principal beneto Harry L. Welles and Henry Griswold. of $10,000, with the life insurance.

Prof. William Wilbur, of George Washmorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the quarterly meeting of the home depart-of the department until late in the fall. and business of importance will be transacted. A musical programme has been arranged, and short talks will be made by women members. Stricken by the Heat.

Frank Bowlini, Italian, twenty years old, residing at 15 Shotts alley northeast, tional Church. This is the last meeting

POLITICS IS DENIED. Unwitnessed Revocation of the Will of Central Labor Union Discuss an Unreliable Statement.

An unusually spirited discussion took of Henry A Griswold, late president of place last night at a meeting of the Centhe Anacostia and Potomac River Rail- tral Labor Union in Typographical Temroad, who shot bimself with a shotgun ple, following a newspaper article in the in his home in Congress Heights, may afternoon to the effect that politics in the cause a contest over the Issuance of Government Printing Office had prompted Lieut. Commander Charles Sweet, U. originality which are cunningly worked into the story.

S. N. and not entirely lieut. So much cause a contest into the issuance of administration and the settle- letters of administration and the settle- graphical Union, to deny Sam De Nedgraphical Union, to deny Sam De Nedrey, secretary of the central body, reappointment as a delegate, and was responsible for an effort to elect Harry Templar, president of the central union, in place of John Lorch.

> Templar denied all knowledge of such a state of affairs. As a member of Columbia Typographical Union, he resented wold, and a brother, Frank C. Griswold, an interpretation he had reason to believe some of the delegates had given to the situation, namely, that the typographical union had changed its tune with the acministration in the White House; that it had turned Pro-Taft, anti-Bryan, and, therefore, anti-Gompers, and was plotting the downfall of Lorch and De Nedrey for their allegiance to the president of the A. F. of L. He disclaimed his substituficiary in the will and codicils, receiving tion for De Nedrey as a delegate to the during her life the property of the testator in Anacostia, and a share with a plan, and announced later, privately, Frank Griswold in the remainder of the The personal property is left dency of the Central Labor Union, y L. Welles and Henry Griswold. An eloquent speech was made by Sam Frank Griswold is directed to pay to the be Nedrey, in which he said he had widow a sum sufficient to make a total planned to sing his swan song a week later, but was prompted by the turn of events to deliver it at once. He declared his hand was raised against no man in the right of appointment was given by the constitution to President kidd, of the typographical union. In office or out of ment of the Mount Pleasant Congrega- it, he asserted he would always fight A resolution was passed pledging support to Cigarmakers' Union, No. 110, in the central body or the affiliated unions for his discontinuance as a delegate; that furthering the sale of union-

Dr. Evans to Make Tour. Dr. Wilson Bruce Evans, principal of the Armstrong Manual Training School, leaves Washington this afternoon come one of the party conducted by Dr. was overcome by heat yesterday after- Booker T. Washington through Southern noon at 2:40 o'clock in front of his home. Virginia, on the railroad recently con-He was taken to Casualty Hospital. Late structed by the late H. H. Rogers, for last night it was stated he would recover.

White-Rock

The American Citizen King of Connoisseurs

and Prince of Good Fellows sorry-not imported

As supplied to His Most Particular Highness